In his first season, he compiled a 46-18-5 record, including an impressive 27-5-3 mark on home ice, both of which records lead the NHL in that span. Additionally, he led the Oilers to their eighth Stanley Cup Final appearance in franchise history and their first since 2006.

In January 2024, Knoblauch became the first head coach in NHL history to record two winning streaks of at least eight games before the 25-game mark of their coaching career and also helped guide the Oilers to a 16-game win streak, tied with the 2016-17 Columbus Blue Jackets for the second longest win streak in NHL history, from December 21, 2023 to January 27, 2024.

With that 16-game win streak, Knoblauch established the NHL's longest winning streak of a head coach in their first season and with the Oilers victory over Calgary on January 20, also led Edmonton to a new record for the longest winning streak by a Canadian team in NHL history eclipsing the mark of the 1967-68 Montreal Canadiens which had stood at 12 games. As a player, Knoblauch made 213 WHL appearances over five seasons with the Red Deer Rebels, Edmonton/Kootenay Ice and Lethbridge Hurricanes from 1995-96 through 1998-99. MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA AND SCOUT ACCREDITATION

All media, photographer and NHL Scout passes issued by the Edmonton Oilers are valid only for the date(s) noted and are non-transferable. Passes may not be used to gain access to Rogers Place or practice facilities for the purpose of obtaining autographs or memorabilia from members of the Edmonton Oilers Hockey Club. The Edmonton Oilers reserve the right to revoke passes at any time. PASSES MUST BE VISIBLE AT ALL TIMES.

MEDIA PRESS BOX

The Press Box at Rogers Place is divided into two working areas. On the lower level, you will find the general media area for all reporter, journalists and scouts not involved in play-by-play. Most seats are specifically allocated with appropriate signage, but if there is any confusion, please direct any queries to the Edmonton Oilers communications staff. The upper level of the Press Box is divided into ten separate booths, in which you will find booths for on-air radio and television broadcasts, home and visiting team officials and NHL off-ice officials.

To gain access to the Press Box, there is one stairway entrance and one elevator which is located adjacent to the Media Lounge and will lead you to the west side of the Press Box. You must have a valid pass to enter working areas.

SINGLE GAME MEDIA ACCREDITATION REQUESTS

Requests for media and scouting accreditation should be submitted to Andrew Peard (apeard@edmontonoilers.com) at least 24 hours prior to games or practices. Accreditation will be available for pick up one hour before practices and two hours before games at the Rogers Place Information Centre on 104th Avenue (near the Wayne Gretzky Statue)

MEDIA AND SCOUT ENTRANCE

Rogers Place: Enter through the security checkpoint location next to the Rogers Place Information Centre (104 Avenue, street level)

Practice Arena (RP Downtown Community Arena- DCA): DCA Entrance – (104 avenue, second floor)

Rogers Place is open to the media and scouts at least three hours prior to game time and one hour prior to practices. Practices at the DCA (Downtown Community Arena) are open thirty minutes prior to practices.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photography passes are approved by Andy Devlin, Edmonton Oilers Team Photographer (lamedia@telus.net) and those accredited as photo journalists are asked to report to the media workroom at least one hour before the game for individual seat allocation. Andy Devlin will have the final say in terms of seat allocation.

Photographers do not have access to the Press Box.

OILERS HALL OF FAME/ PRESS CONFERENCES

The head coach will be made available to media following all home games and most practices and pre-game skates in the Oilers Hall of Fame, located at street level at the Scotiabank Premium. Media can access this room by using the VIP hallway off the Locker Room corridor. Unless otherwise indicated, most Oilers press conferences will be held in the Oilers Hall of Fame.

OTHER MEDIA SERVICES

The Media Lounge will be open an hour and a half before each game. A media meal is available for accredited media to purchase prior to games. The Media Lounge also functions as a workroom for media with tables and counters prior to, during and after games.

Limited snacks and beverages are offered in the Press Box during the game.

Closed circuit television monitors are located for your convenience throughout the Press Box.

Game statistics will be distributed after each period in the Press Box, while final game sheets will be distributed in the Media Lounge 15 minutes after the game.
